

BEVERLEY HILLS SPACIOUS ART DECO

To register to attend an open for inspection please click the Request an Inspection button.

Beverley Hills attracts an eclectic mix drawn from the fields of media, politics, publishing and the arts. This exceptionally spacious 2 bedroom plus study apartment is set quietly at the rear of the block and framed by a lush yard offering privacy and tranquil outlooks throughout. Tastefully renovated, the home features an open plan living and dining zone with decorative fireplace. Adjacent stone kitchen including new fridge/freezer, terrific storage, bench space and a discreet Euro laundry finished with white cabinetry and striking monochrome printed tiles. Master bedroom with a wall of robes that flows through to a study and second double bedroom with robes are served by a sparkling bathroom with frameless shower and floor to ceiling hand pressed subway tiles. This beautiful residence retains hardwood floors underfoot, ornate geometric ceiling roses overhead, matching architraves, original joinery and leadlight windows while being updated with heating and cooling for modern comfort. In a much loved block with a pool surrounded by palm trees and a rooftop deck with stunning views to enjoy with afternoon drinks. Located opposite Darling Park and in close proximity to Main Yarra Trail and The Tan Track. Also a short walk to Como Gardens, The Botanic Gardens, Domain Village, Toorak Road Shopping, cafes, trams and train.
