

SPACIOUS 'NEW YORK' LIVING

Originally a 2 bedroom apartment, this funky one-bedroom plus open study home is alive with New York-inspired passion, showcasing light filled interiors and clever optimisation of space throughout. Situated within a low density building and on top of the original Australian Dunlop Tyre Factory, the apartment comprises: open plan/living dining room with split system heating/cooling, private balcony and unobstructed views of Port Melbourne and beyond. Topped in timber with a central island bench adding some very useful workspace, the kitchen is fully equipped with stainless steel appliances including electric cooking, dishwasher and an abundance of cupboard space. Master bedroom features built in robes, split system heating/cooling and a secondary private balcony. Completing the package is a fully renovated bathroom and laundry, laundry with space for washing machine, dryer and includes storage. With under-cover car parking for one (access off Woodgate Street, South Melbourne) and being perfectly positioned on the edge of the CBD, South Melbourne Market, parklands & an excellent transport network, this stunning home is sure to tick every box.
